

One warning
I never think when I speak
Shower once a week
Eat ramen with cheese

My pulse on the grain
It round like on display
Make em grow one with the pain
Sippin on mediterranean champaigne

Melancholic about the days
These demons been on my tail
Unpredictable angles
Taking shots and I strange ya

Murder you wrote what
Blood ink yeah
See through leggings
Head up in pink

Tear stained paper though
Boroughed behind walls
Nails done
And whoa

Slashed starmap directions on my wrist
Die before I find you diseased
The exorcism vile like a perverse priest
Call me the black Emmeror of this shit

Wu underground
Forever steppin
Bad breed yeah
We don't blend
Ball drop signal
I start em in a smoke trail

Majestic metrics on my come up
I traverse a thousand like Andre

Wasn't 33 in 16
Where you think I got that
Raw unmistakable conscious thriller
Best remain on your guard young killa
Word of advice flow lit
No two camps we set it up right

Down with all fours
Black airwaves
Let em up on ignore
T-minus 10 snakes
Elevator implode

Can't erase when I front you
Think or you'll see straight
One blink and you miss it
And I circle a kick yeah

Called bright by auntie may
Too busy flipping long beams
To be goin downstream
Like Moses smashing nemes what
